

DAVID L DEMING CENTURION II
ABSTRACT MODERN SCULPTURE IN FLAT BLACK STEEL, 1985

$168,000

SKU: N/A

Categories: Fine Art, Sculpture

GALLERY IMAGES

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

An astounding abstract sculpture hand crafted by renowned Texas artist David Deming executed in 1985. It was titled "Centurion II" because

This artwork was purchased from Deming's first solo exhibition at the Adams-Middleton Gallery in Dallas TX.

Comprised of 9 interlocking steel pieces, Centurion II is post-modern anthropomorphism at its finest. It commands the attention of observers from every angle. Refinished in an exterior grade flat black paint and ready for installation.

Overall very good restored condition.

Deming's work is in museums, public parks, and private collections across the country. Provenance:
Adams-Middleton Gallery
Private Collection Flamante Family Dallas TX
Jesuit School of Dallas
20cdesign (current).