PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

This amazing table was custom ordered for oil and gas billionaire philanthropist Bob Kinzie's personal estate in Louisiana. It was originally used as a dining room table and was flanked with 14 Dunbar dining chairs. He ordered of these tables in the early 1960s and always hated that there were breaks in the tabletop for leaves. Later in the 1980s, he custom ordered this one from the Dunbar factory with a twelve-foot long one-piece walnut top. It is in excellent shape. The coloration of the top is very even and there are no flaws. The splotches in the photos are only from reflections. It has a natural oil rubbed wax finish and a beautiful book-matched grain pattern. 60" wide in the center 40" wide on the ends.

Circa 1980.
